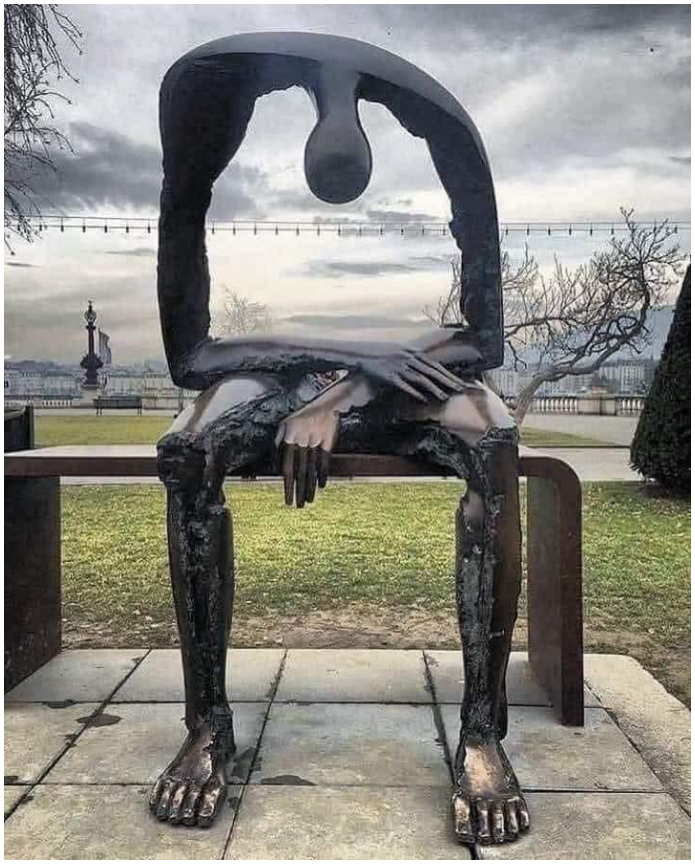
the HOLE inside



We were created to be a Master's piece, but we were designed broken. You were made cracked, complete with a chasm. I was fashioned with fissures, filled with voids, the hollow within me enough to fit all the snares offered in this world. The Master Creator fabricates within each person a God-sized, God-shaped hole, just damaged and empty enough to only be filled by Him.

Although humanity spends countless time and money trying to saturate and permeate what is vacant within, nothing in this world will ever come close to satisfying or overflowing the emptiness. The cavern deep inside us can only be inlayed with Holy God, the One Who intimately dreamt you and I into being, and out of dust and His breath, fashioned us from nothing into someone.

This same God is the same One Who sees you and loves you extravagantly even still. He is the same God Who has been into my future and waits for me there, while He prepares and purposes me for all He has for me. He is the same God Who will fill you and me to overflowing when we allow Him, and He promises to even make use of the cracks in us as He shines through the broken places and shimmers through our fractured fragments. He doesn't waste anything, and no matter how shattered and destroyed life leaves us, He is the ultimate Fixer Upper and will fill each void with Himself and repair every gap, no matter how big or small.

If you will just give it to Him, He will complete it.

Psalm 139:23-24, 'Search me, o God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts. See if there is any offensive way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.' (NIV)
