FATIGUED

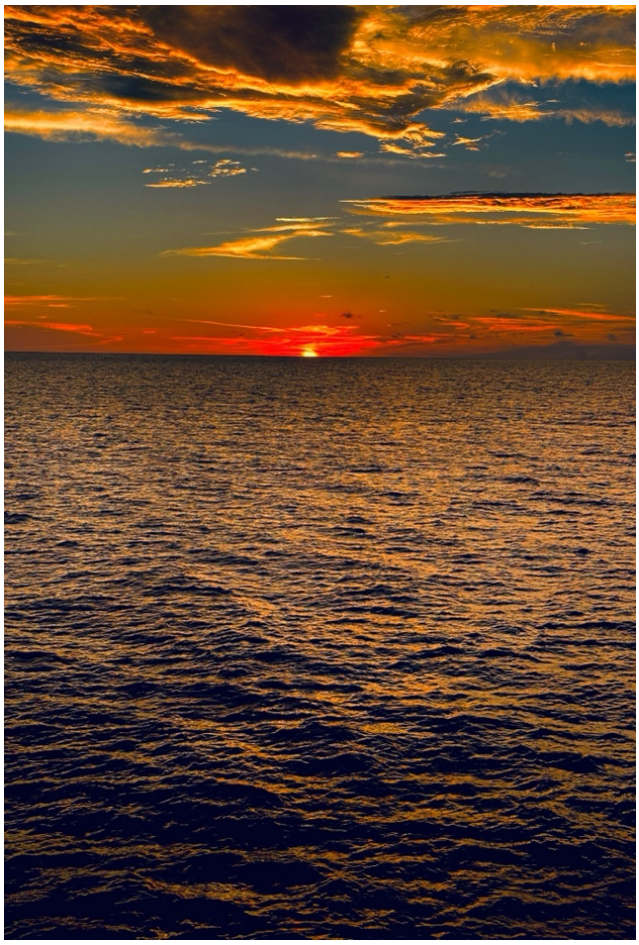
Everywhere I look, I see hollow eyes. Everywhere I hear, I listen to exhaustive measures people are taking to just cope and get by. We look at each other through tired souls in the grocery lines and comment about how tiring is the new year already almost one month in. While everything else gets more expensive and mundane flavors seem unappealing with what we consume daily, at least caffeine-infused drinks offer special deals, new combinations of flavoring and extra stars so our caffeinated addictions can be enhanced. Because we are all dragging, fatigued, and just plain exhausted.



Thank GOD He never sleeps nor gets weary. Praise Him, He doesn't give up and walk out or away. Thank You, Jesus, You don't do the Quiet Quit, and You haven't stopped believing in humanity. Thank You, God, You are still drawing us with an eternal pen that is filled with the ink of everlasting love, dipping the tip of it in the depth of oceans of grace and blotting out our own exhaustible stubbornness and selfishness. We need You, Jesus, to come sit with us. Before another tired day sinks into the horizon, please come soothe us with Your peaceful presence so that we can find rest for our starved souls and live once more.

Isaiah 40:28-31 "Don't you know? Haven't you been listening. Yahweh is the one and only everlasting God, the Creator of all you can see and imagine! He never gets weary or worn out. His intelligence is unlimited; he is never puzzled over what to do! He empowers the feeble and infuses the powerless with increasing strength. Even young people faint and get exhausted; athletic ones may stumble and fall. But those who wait for Yahweh's grace will experience divine strength. They will rise-up on soaring wings and fly like eagles, run their race without growing weary, and walk through life without giving up." (TPT)