TOMORROW

The Lord has already been there. Did you know that? Into your tomorrow. He's already been there. In fact, He is meeting you there. He has your tomorrow and mine in preparation, so that when we arrive there, it is planned and blessed and even sung over. It may be a surprise to you or to me, but it is never to Him. What's more, the Lord never wrings His hands in consternation, or out of dismay or astonishment does anything come into the paths of His children. He is not surprised by anything we encounter.

While it may seem frustrating or disheartening that Holy God has been into our future amidst the chaos and crises and the happenings we wish we could avoid, I promise He only has good and true intent for His children. He does not cause the hiccups or things that go bump in the night, but He does allow various things to occur. For our good and for His glory. His heart beats for you, and no matter what you are traveling through, He has a purpose in mind that will bring about His perfect plan. He handles our future until we arrive in it and journeys that path with us when we can't see straight ourselves. And when we totally get misguided and end up off course, He patiently waits while we find our way home. He leaves a light on even.

There isn't a thing God does not know about you and me. When we cannot see His face, we can trust His heart, because He cares deeply for His children. In fact, he is madly in love with you and with me.

Psalm 139:1-5 'Lord, you know everything there is to know about me. You perceive every movement of my heart and soul, and you understand my every thought before it even enters my mind. You are so intimately aware of me, Lord. You read my heart like an open book and you know all the words I'm about to speak before I even start a sentence! You know every step I will take before my journey even begins. You've gone into my future to prepare the way, and in kindness you follow behind me to spare me from the harm of my past. You have laid your hand on me!' (TPT)
